Weddings

Farley-Raymond.

The marriage of Miss Esther Care-lyn Farley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Farley to Mr. Richard Ren-dolph Baymond, which was solemn dolph Raymond, which was solemn-ized on Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist church, was one of prettiest of the early fall wed-an attractive setting for the o'clock, the Rev. H. S. Spragins & C.

a beautiful program of auptial Pus-was rendered by Mrs. Ressilee, I win Reese, who presided skillful at the organ and just before the reof Bride roses and lines of the value of Bride roses and lines of the value of Bride mother, who was bernard of honor, was gowned in brown crepe racteor and chantilly lace with hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Air. Raymoni was attended by Mr. S. F. Gill, uncle of the bride, who served as best man and Messrs. T. H. McKnight and Hal Quackenboss as groomsmen.

Immediately after the ceremony limits and the maid or honor. Mrs. A man and all controls are growned in pink satin draped in pink satin and lace.

Immediately after the Ceremon Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left for several Northern and Eastern cities and on their return will be lat hame in their newly farmished apartment on Madison avenue and McNeil strivet.

Most of Mrs. Raymond's girlhood days were spent in the West. On coming to Memphis two years ago with her parents she completed her education at Miss Hutchison's school and by her pleasing personality has a basket of pink rose petals, will be the flower girl.

Saino-Cabrielleschi.

pretty wedding was solemnize day morning at 6:15 o'clock, when Miss Amelia Genevieve Saino became the bride of Mr. Umberta J.
Gabrielleschi, the Rev. Monsignor
Murphy officiating.
Miss Margaret Condon presided at

Miss Margaret Condon presided at the organ, rendering a number of appropriate and beautiful selections. Mr. John Moloughney sang the Ave Maria and just before the entrance of the bridal party Mrs. James Ad-ler sang "At Dawning."

The lovely young bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Frank Saino, wore a suit of rein-deer duvetyn with hat to match and a wrist boughet of Bride roses and wrist bouquet of Bride roses and man and Mr. Frank O'Brien served daughter of Mrs. Annie B. Smith, to Mr. Emmett Rogers, of New Albany, Misa., will be solemnized on Wed-nesday evening at 2 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, 1243 Greenwood street, the Rev. Walter M. White, paster of the Linden Ave-nue Christian church, officiating. The rooms will be artistically decorated with tall wicker floor basket of white roses and asters with palm and ferns effectively arranged form an improvised after which will and approaching marriage of her mark the place of ceremony. Mrs. N. A. Carter, of Earle, Ark eek, of Nashville, Tenn., will sin Thou Art Like Unto a Lovel flower," and Mr. Edwin Farrior w.

round bouquet of Bride roses and Hey lilles.
Miss Pauline Smith will be her sis

LODGE NOTICES

DEATH NOTICES

with which she will wear a blue hat and carry an arm bouquet of Kaliar-

Mr. Bose Hickens of New Albany, Miss. will be the best man. After a short bridgi trip Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will be at home in New Albany, Miss.

Smith-Taylor.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Boss Smith on Vinton avenue will be the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, when their drapher, thine will become the bride of Mr. Junes N. Taylor, of Mason, Team.

A pink color note will prevail in the ornamentation of the rooms thrown open for the occasion, pink was rendered by Mrs. Bessiles let win Reese, who presided skillfully at the organ and just before the rete mony Mrs. R. F. Gill exquisitely sent Cadman's "At Dawning" and 'null by Sanderson and Mr. Brin Farley rich baritons voice was learn in "All For You" by d'Hardelet.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a fail will of dark blue tricotine with a nat of brown voices with a nat of brown voices and likes of the valley in shower effect.

The bride's mother, who was her the well and the bride's mother, who was her the beautifully gowned in chantilly level a shower effect.

The bride's mother, who was her the well against a court trunk. Her veil will leave with against of pearls and having a court trunk. Her veil will have beautifully gowned in chantilly less with against of pearls and having a court trunk. Her veil will have beautifully gowned in chantilly less with against of pearls and having a court trunk.

education at Miss Hutchison's school and by her pleasing personality has drawn to her many friends.

Mr. Raymond is a successful young business man of Memphis, being manager of one of the departments of the firm of F. W. Brode & Co., and is deservedly popular.

Saino-Gabrielleschi. a bridal trip to Chicago For traveling, the bride will wen a dark blue velour suit with a black velvet hat brocaded in blue.

Gorham Bell. PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 6.—Miss Fay Jorham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gorham, of this city, and Mr. Plarence Addison Bell, Memphis, Tenn, were married here yesterday morning in the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. P. H. Pleune, of the First Presbyterian church, offi-ciated. They will reside in Memphis.

Greer-Crutchfield.

and gold with which she were a bine velvet hat and a wrist bouguet of bink roses.

Miss Marie McDowell, wearing a gown of rust brown charmeuse with lace overdraperies, a hat to match and a wrist bouguet of Killarney roses, was Miss Saino's bridesmaid.

Mr. Frank C. Saino bridesmaid.

The bride was gowned in a fall suit of blue cloth with hat and accessories in harmony, with which she as groomsman.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast at the Hotel Chisca was enjoyed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gabrielleschi left for Knoxville, Chattangoga and other points in the state. On their return they will be at home at 1937 South Wellington street.

Smith-Rogers.

Cessories in harmony, with which she wore a corsage bouquet of roses and valley lilles.

Mrs. C. D. Moody, of McKenzie, Tenn, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Headlee and Miss of the bride, were among the guests from a distance.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crutchfield left for a bridal and Mrs. Crutchfield left for a brida

Engagements

Hicks-Houser.

Mrs. G. W. Hicks, of Dyersburg daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Percy Houser of Memphia, the wedding t take place Tuesday, October 26.

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL.

MISS FLORENCE B. RILEY Master of the method of the Rus-in Imperial Ballet school. Member of the American Associa-Perchers of Duncing, tiley is one of two teacher the privilege of learning the enal reportains of the Payles

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Tel. Main 810-811. Memphis.

PHOMPT AMBULANCE SERVICE

Entertainments MISS ROBERTSON ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF MISS RAINER.

Miss Louise Robertson was the charming young hosters at a most enjoyable affair on Wednesday afternoon, when she emeriained at function at the Country club it honor of Miss Evelyn Rainer, who luncheon at the Country club to honor of Miss Evelyn Rather, who wall be complimented with a sories will be complimented with a series of lovely social affairs preceding her marriage to Mr. Florace Twiferd on to tober 14.

To enjoy the deficious menu the guests were seated at a circuity natic, which had us a entempere a market business of dahlas in a beautiful shade of pink, with a pink bow it tille couplet to the basket hands. The couleur de ross was repeated in the bonisms and the degent course than periods marked the places of the guests that being impired to the guests that being impired to the greats. The list being impired to the greats of the greats that being impired to the greats. The list being impired to the greats of the greats that the list being impired to the greats. The list being impired to the greats that the list being impired to the greats. The list being impired to the greats that the list being impired to the greats. The Liberty club will meet Thurse day afternoon at 2 o'clock in the list. W. A. Lieuton, 1646 Avers street. Heapts will be played during the afternoon.

The first meeting of the greats of the Adam Dale chapter, D. A. R., will French toque.

Miss Hainer were an imported model of dark bive gatardine with touches of East Indian red and a gray velvet hat trainmed with coque.

Informal Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Farley were at home at their Madison Heights apartments to relatives and a few friends on Tuesday evening in bonor of their daughter. Esther Carolyn, whose marriage to Mr. Richard Randolph Raymond, was sciemnized at the First Methodist church at 4 meet Thursday afternoon at of-town guests were Mrs. C. A. Cland, Newman, Ga.; Mrs. J. L. Merson, Albany, Ga., and Mr. and S. F. Gill, Nashville, Tenn.

Announcements

MANY AFFAIRS PLANNED COM-PLIMENTARY TO MISS RAINER.

The first meeting of the season of the Adam Pale chapter, D. A. R., will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. T. J. Hunn 560 Leclede avenue.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Temple Haptist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2.30 c'clock at the The Ladies' Speedway Civic club will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Fercy Todd, 1085

Greenlaw avenue. The Ladies' Temple auxiliary wil temple. An interesting program will be rendered and refreshments served.

The Friends of the Needy circle of the King's Daughters will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. I. H. Barnwell, 1732 Peabody

The Semper Fidelis club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Jessie Haines on Summer avenue.

The League of Women Voters will meet Thursday morning at 19 o'clock at the Community center. An all-day sewing will be Thursday by the ladies of the Trin-ity Lutheran church. Lunch will be served and all ladies are invited. The Alpha Book club will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. J. P. Carey.

The Rosemark Parent-Teacher as aciation will meet Thursday after-ioon. A full attendance is urged as important business will be discussed.

Here and There

Mr and Mrs. Beverly L. Chrice and little son. Beverly, Jr., left on Tuesday for New York and on route will spend a few days in Washing-ton and will visit in Boston before. their return.

Mr. Walter A. Ward left Tuesday evening for Evansville, ind. to at-tend the golden wedding antiversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ward.

Mrs. Ben Williamsen and daugh-ter. Sue McGaveck, have returned af-ter having spent the summer on the plantation, Sans Souel, Grider, Ark.

Among the attactive Memphis girls ittending the reunion in Houston, is 2:30 | Miss Martha Childress, who is sponson for Pat Cleburne camp, U. S. as the election of officers will be charge of arrangements

The many friends of Miss Adel-Orgill will be glad to knew that af-ter several months spent traveling abroad, she will sail for home on Saturday.

Mrs. R. W. Van Pelt has returned to her home in St. Leuis, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Ben R. Henderson, 1191 Vance avenue.

The alternates will bea Lottie Shepherd Perryman

Mary Hunter Miller, D. F. Baiton and

Sarah Wright Clab.

The Sarah Wright Dramatic club

Ellen Mozeley,

CLUBDOM Reception Planned.

At the meeting of the Elizabeth club, over which Mrs. Hugh Hayley presided on Tuesday, plans were made for the annual reception in J. Harvey Mathes Chapter. made for the annual reception in celebration of the club's birthday, which will be given from 3 to 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon, Oct. 22.

Mrs. G. T. Fitzhugh will arrange the musical program for the occasion. It was also planned to give a Halloween serty in bonor of the girls who live The J. Harvey Mathes chapter, U. D. C., met at Confederate headquar-ters on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the election of officers was held, resulting as follows: Mrs. Charles B. Bryan, president; Mrs. J. J. Williams, honorary president; Mrs. W. A. Collier, honorary first vice-president; Mrs. Joseph D. Browne, second vice-president; Mrs. J. N. party in honor of the girls who live at the club. Judge P. L. Sivley and Mr. Irwin second vice-president; Mrs. J. N. Howard, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Harvey Mathes, corresponding secre-

R. Bensdorf have made liberal dona-tions to the cisc. Mrs. W. H. Barker, chairman of the recreation commis-sion, and Mrs. Herbert Halle Brooks, chairman of the house committee, Harvey Mathes, corresponding secretary Mrs. Percy Pation treasurer; Mrs. Annie Q. Prescott registrar; Mrs. Mary H. Miller, historian; Mrs. Ellen Moseley, honorary historian; Mrs. Berry Brooks, custodian of crosses, and Mrs. Solari, custodian of crosses, and Mrs. Bettle T. Gray, life chaplain.

Mrs. Charles N. Bettle T. Gray, life chaptain; Mrs. Charles N. Bettle Mrs. Anna Harrison and Mrs. Paul Deiselman were received into the chapter.

The delegates to the general convention in Asheville are: Mmes. Charles B. Bryan, J. Harvey Mathea. Charles G. Carobers and Percy H. Patton. The alternates will be: chairman of the house committee, and their committees will have day afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The services will be led by Dr. Henry Ostrom, of the Moody Bible institute, of Chicago. Everybody will be welcome.

Special for All Week at the Palace Markets per 1b. 12c Ground Beef, per lb. 12c per Ib.

Palace Markets No. 1, 106 North Main No. 2, 79 South Main held. Miss Kate Lucas will give a report of the Blue Ridge conference, and plans for the study course, par-ties and dramatic presentations for Chicken Dinner. ties and dramatic presenta-the year will be outlined. Vesper services will be held in the clubrooms, 156 Madison avenue, Sun-The Ladies' Aid society of the Bartlett Baptist church, following its annual custom, will give a chicken dinner and picnic at the church Thursday evening at 5 o'clock. Many Memphians generally attend these suppers.

Additional society on page 9

Sun Spots

on your face ? Freckles? Tan? Why worry?

Golden Peacock Blemish Bleach will remove them.

Keeps the skin fair and smooth a a rose petal through trying summer weather.

Price $1.00. Booklet of Tollet Hints comes with it. All Drug Stores and Toiler Counters or sent direct by mail PARIS TOLLET CO., Paris, Tonn

Planned to Introduce Our New Seven and a Half-Acre Store Giving Memphis the Largest Store in the South

A Half-Million Dollars Worth of Seasonable New Merchandise Offered in the Usual Bry Way

The natural order of things would have seen our new 174,299-foot annex completed October 1st, and in anticipation of this we planned a sale -sort of house warming-that would never be forgotten. Buyers searched the markets, laid the facts squarely before the manufacturers and contracted for approximately a half-million dollars' worth of clean, new, seasonable merchandise. . And while the Annex is not entirely completed, the special merchandise is all here, and we will celebrate anyhow-and promise a never-to-be-forgotten bargain event.

It is with pardonable pride that we announce this event, planned at the completion of our New Annex, that brings to Memphis the largest department store in the South-the largest department store in any city of less than two hundred and fifty thousand population, and a store that does the largest volume of business, per capita, in America.

You Know The Bry Sales This Is No Exception

Sale Starts Next Friday, October 8th; See Thursday's Papers for Details

